Afro-Heritage Association of Sudbury

The Afro-Heritage Association of Sudbury (AHA) is a not-for-profit organization based in Sudbury, Ontario. Established as a community organization that is volunteer operated.

As part of the intricate tapestry of Canadian multiculturalism, AHA was established in 2005 to unite people of African ancestry within the community.

AHA's core mission is to promote the understanding, communication, cooperation and cultural exchange between Afro-Canadians and other members of the multicultural society, with the ultimate goal of promoting unity among the Afro-Canadian community.

The Northern Ontario Black Economic Empowerment Program is being positioned to be the regional not-for-profit Black led organization that will deliver a new program to support the growth of the Black entrepreneurship ecosystem

Program Duration 2022-2025

Black Entrepreneurship Program

From: Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada

The Black Entrepreneurship Program (BEP) is a partnership between the Government of Canada, Black-led business organizations, and financial institutions. With an investment of up to $221 million over four years, it will help Black Canadian business owners and entrepreneurs grow their businesses and succeed now and into the future.

✔ Now open: Applications for the National Ecosystem Fund and the Black Entrepreneurship Knowledge Hub.

HOW TO DO BUSINESS WITH NOBEEP

Engaging with NOBEEP is easy; we are directing all intakes through our online website portal at www.nobeep.ca We look forward to hearing from five distinct groups across Northern Ontario.

- Clients - these are people/organizations that want to get help from NOBEEP,
- Partners - these are people/organizations that want to partner with us for service delivery and support services
- Sponsors - these are people/organizations that want to provide NOBEEP with financial resources,
- Mentors - these are people that want to join our confidential mentorship network, and
- Volunteers - these are people that are willing to offer us their help on an as needed basis.

NOBEEP is creating an ecosystem of support that will work with the existing business development assets across Northern Ontario. We look forward to identifying and working with Black entrepreneurs, start-ups and existing businesses from Northern Ontario.
