Due North is a completely redesigned monthly publication that still provides news and updates relating to Northern Policy Institute, but now offers so much more!

Due North contains several new sections, including:

- North by the Numbers – A visual take on Northern Ontario data
- News in the North – The latest headlines from communities across Northern Ontario
- Success Stories – Stories highlighting individuals and organizations that are helping to grow the North
- Northern Community Spotlight – Featured profiles of Northern Ontario communities
- Monthly Polls – An interactive feature that allows our readers to direct Northern Policy Institute's research
- Sneak Peak – An exclusive preview of upcoming projects and publications for subscribers of Due North

The new newsletter also provides readers with the opportunity to submit their own suggestions for news stories, success stories, and nominations for community spotlights.

We are very excited about the launch of Due North and we are eager to hear any feedback from our readers. If you have any suggestions or comments regarding Due North, please let us know.

We also encourage you to distribute Due North to anyone that might be interested in Northern Policy Institute or Northern Ontario policy. And don't forget to subscribe to receive Due North directly in your inbox.
